That East Las Vegas and Las Vegas are setting an example for other towns in the territory as far as commercial unity and civic pride goes, is evidenced by the following editorial in the Santa Fe New Mexican:

"While East Las Vegas and Las Vegas are rivals in more than one respect and feeling between the towns has been intense to the detriment of both, yet, both towns are setting an example to Santa Fe, for the Las Vegas club and the Commercial club of East Las Vegas decided to act in conjunction to obtain better roads and to make representations to Governor Curry when he goes to the Meadow City this or next week, that it is hoped will result in the resumption of work on the Scenic Highway at the Las Vegas end. And it would serve Santa Fe right if this were done, instead of at the Santa Fe end, as the good roads commission has decided, provided it was met half way by the business interests of that city."

TEN "DEMANDMENTS" FOR EMPLOYEES.

Some of our biggest business ideas come out of Chicago. A big business man there has drawn up a list of rules which he calls the Ten Demandments, and posted them over his establishment. Here they are:

Rule I.—Don't lie—it wastes my time and yours. I'm sure to catch you in the end, and that's the wrong end.

Rule II.—Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short, and a short day's work makes my face long.

Rule III.—Give me more than I expect and I'll pay you more than you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profits.

Rule IV.—You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt or keep out of my shops.

Rule V.—Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men like good women, can't see temptation when they meet it.

Rule VI.—Mind your own business and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.

Rule VII.—Don't do anything here which hurts your self respect. The employee who is willing to steal for me is capable of stealing from me.

Rule VIII.—It's none of my business what you do at night. But if dissipation affects what you do the next day, and you do half as much as I demand, you'll last half as long as you hoped.

Rule IX.—Don't tell me what I'd like to hear, but what I ought to hear. I don't want a valet to my vanity, but I need one for my dollars.

Rule X.—Don't kick if I kick—if you're worth while correcting you're worth while keeping. I don't waste time cutting specks out of rotten apples.

This is the season of the year, too, when it becomes necessary to give your vacation plans a revision downward.

CONFIDENT MURDER
SUSPECT IS GORDON

Sheriff Cleofes Romero and Deputy Enrique Sena are still confident that they have the much-wanted "Bay" Gordon, fugitive Colorado murderer, in the county jail, his identification having been made almost certain since yesterday.

Today Sheriff Romero had a conversation with Sheriff F. E. McKimlan, of Pueblo, Colo., over the long distance telephone, relative to the suspect in jail here and after this talk with the Colorado officer, Sheriff Romero expressed it as his opinion that Williams and Gordon are one and the same man.

Several pictures of Williams were taken yesterday afternoon and these were forwarded by mail today to Pueblo. It will be known definitely by tomorrow whether Williams is Gordon, as identification should be made easily by a comparison of the pictures with those of Gordon in the hands of the Colorado authorities.

Williams still stoutly denies he is Gordon, and expresses the utmost willingness to go back to Colorado, where he says he will have no trouble in proving he is the wrong man, as soon as persons who knew Gordon see him. However, if he is not the badly wanted murderer, he is surely his double.

Deputy Sena will receive a cash reward totalling $500 should Williams turn out to be Gordon.

COLLEGE PROFESSOR IS KILLED AT TRACK MEET.

La Fayette, Ind., May 26.—Prof. Benj. M. Hoak, of Purdue University, who was accidentally struck by a hammer here Saturday while officiating in a state high school track meet, died today from his injuries.

Those who go away every summer for rest usually fall in with people about as tiresome as home folks.

As the girls tell it, the principal thing they do not get at boarding school is board.
